Hoover Declares Third of World Lacking in Food

TOKYO, May 6 (U.P.)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today that the present food crisis is the "most acute the world has ever seen" and predicted that the situation will become more threatening this summer despite every effort to alleviate it.

"Nearly one-third of the population of the world is short of food," he said. ". . . My mission is to prevent mass starvation between now and Sept. 1.

"We can succeed only if we can avoid any conflicts and by being democratic at heart.

"I am for feeding everyone," Hoover added.

Hoover, on a world-wide tour of distressed countries as head of the U. S. famine committee, said he conferred at length with Gen. Douglas MacArthur who told him that the Japanese food situation was the worst in 30 years.

"Japan must have some food imports," Hoover told a press conference. "Without them, all Japan will go on a ration little better than that which the Germans gave the inmates of the Buchenwald and Belsen concentration camps."

"Moreover, unless there are food imports, the people will not have the stamina to work upon the reconstruction or in the fields for the next crop."

He said the amounts of food required for Japan will not hinder supplies which should go to China, India, the Philippines or Korea—provided there is full co-operation and distribution over the entire world during the crisis between now and the next harvest.

He suggested that such co-operation could be given by Russia if that country "would release to China and Korea a part of the foodstuffs it has obtained in Manchuria."

At any event, he said, between now and September 1, "there is going to be a hungry world at the very best we can do."

Shoshone H.S. Boys Injured; One 'Critical'

SHOSHONE, May 6 — Five Shoshone high school boys were injured in a head-on collision when the car in which they were passengers collided Sunday noon with an army command car.

In Gooding hospital in critical condition was Floyd Hall, jr., 16, one of the school's outstanding athletes and son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hall, sr. He is still unconscious.

Dwain Knigge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knigge, has two fractured ribs and also bruises. He too is hospitalized.

Another hospital patient is Evan Guthrie, who suffered concussion of the chest and bruises. The above three were sophomores. Sustaining injuries not serious were Doyle Knigge, Dwain's brother, and Sterling Hudman. Both were treated at the hospital and went home.

Guthrie was driving the car in which the boys were passengers.

The command car was driven by B. A. Uhrig, Boise, who was unhurt. It was believed the command car had been purchased from the government by Uhrig.

The Guthrie machine, owned by the boy's father, was demolished. About $100 damage was done the command car.

ALARM

OMAHA, May 6 (AP) — Howard Lindmier lighted a fire in the fireplace, turned off the lights and, with his wife, contentedly watched the flickering flames until anxious neighbors and firemen burst into the living room.

A neighbor, Fireman Kaj Knoblauch, had seen the open fire when he came off duty, and turned in the alarm.

Lindmier wasn't angry. He said Knoblauch was just attending to business.

BUSY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 6 (AP)—With local theaters darkened by electric curtailment, Flossie, official mice exterminator at one house, was the only busy merchant.

She gave birth to two new kittens in theater Manager M. E. Berman's waste basket.

Supplies of Coal Decline in Idaho

BOISE, May 6 (AP)—Coal supplies are now 50 per cent of normal throughout Idaho, A. H. Barton, Boise, president of the Idaho Coal Dealers association, said today.

"Some dealers are already out of coal in certain sizes and they will be scraping bin bottoms by June 1 unless the strike ends," Barton declared.

Barton said the arrival of summer and the lack of panic buying by consumers have been "bright spots" of the Idaho coal shortage. Most Idaho dealers said industrial dealers in the state had from 30 to 60 days supply of coal on hand at the time of the strike, Barton said.

Primary Vote For 4 States Set Tuesday

WASHINGTON, May 6 (U.P.) — Four states hold primary elections tomorrow with Ohio performing in the spot lighted center ring.

The other primary states are Alabama, Florida and Indiana. Ohio is tops despite a spiritless primary campaign in which two of the major candidates are without opposition. One of them is former Gov. John W. Bricker who will receive the Republican senatorial nomination tomorrow. He hopes to win the GOP presidential nomination in 1948.

Seeks Renomination

The other is Gov. Frank Lausche, a Democrat who seeks renomination.

The Ohio primary is interesting because of a three-way race for the Democratic senatorial nomination. The winner will oppose Bricker next November — and probably will be licked. But even with the odds against him, Bricker's senatorial opponent will be a figure of national interest. If the experts are wrong and Bricker is defeated in November, there will be one less potential candidate for the Republican presidential nomination two years hence.

Oppose Bricker

The three men contesting for the Democratic senatorial nomination and the right to oppose Bricker in November are former Rep. Stephen M. Young, Marvin C. Harrison, a Cleveland attorney, and the incumbent, Sen. James W. Huffman. Huffman was appointed to the senate last year to replace a Republican, Harold H. Burton, who was placed on the supreme court by President Truman.

In Alabama there is no senatorial contest but the governor's chair is to be filled. Neither Indiana nor Florida elects a governor this year but there are senatorial contests in both states. Sen. Charles O. Andrews, D., Fla., is retiring from the senate on his own motion. Sen. Raymond E. Willis, R., Ind., is seeking renomination.

Shortages of Butter to Be Solon's Topic

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The house committee investigating food shortages took up the butter problem today.

The group of farm state lawmakers who make up the special committee called Stabilization Chief Chester Bowles, OPA Boss Paul Porter and Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson to capitol hill for an airing of their own and congressional views on price and other controls over dairy products.

Chairman Pace, D., Ga., told a reporter "we intend to work out a program which not only will relieve present shortages, but establish the dairy industry on a sound, long-range basis."

Pace said the committee agreed upon several recommendations two months ago and submitted them to the federal officials "but nothing has been done."

He added that Anderson and the committee "are in accord about what should be done, but the others are disregarding us."

Japanese War Leaders Deny Crimes Guilt

TOKYO, May 6 (AP)—Hideki Tojo and 26 other war-time leaders of Japan today entered staccato pleas of innocent to charges that they unleashed a war of aggression and murder in the Pacific and were ordered to trial June 3 despite their counsels' protest that the interval is too short.

The far east tribunal, before which the 27 appeared for their first formal hearing, however, will convene again next Monday to permit the defense to renew its emphatic challenge that the court has no jurisdiction in the pending cases.

Attacks Jurist

Tojo's attorney, Ichiro Kiyose, lost no time today in attacking the tribunal. He charged that the court's president, Sir William Webb of Australia, has been so biased by his investigation of Japanese atrocities in New Guinea that he cannot judge fairly.

The motion was promptly denied after a 10-minute recess conference. With Webb absent from the discussion, eight of the court's other 10 justices ruled that no objection to any member can be sustained because the court's charter provides that members shall be of General MacArthur's choosing.

Gets Sanity Test

The only defendant not entering a plea of innocent was Dr. Shumei Okawa, who was absent from the courtroom undergoing a sanity examination by allied phychiatrists as a result of his slapping Tojo's bald head in the court last week and other prisoner's box antics.

Okawa, former director of the east Asia economics research institute of Manchuria, is accused of instigating the Mukden incident that set off Japanese aggression.

Sadao Araki, former general and war minister, was the first to plead. He stood stiffly and in clipped Japanese began a lengthy statement; but Webb cut him off, confining him to a simple plea of innocent.

Legislative Action Looms in Walkout As Coal Dwindles

WASHINGTON, May 6 (U.P.)—Sen. Scott Lucas, D., Ill., today called for criminal prosecution of coal strike leaders.

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The coal strike which President Truman described as a "national disaster" stretched into its sixth week today with official fears and congressional tempers both mounting.

As John L. Lewis prepared to resume his "silent treatment" of the bituminous operators, congress made its first tentative move toward stepping into the dispute.

A house judiciary subcommittee scheduled hearings on a bill to outlaw any form of special production payments to unions. Such a law, if passed, would strike down Lewis' No. 1 demand—for a health and welfare fund for his miners.

Lewis held his own counsel on this maneuver as well as Mr. Truman's week-end report warning that the full impact of the strike has only "barely begun" to be felt.

Even before that document was made public, the senate heard several of its members demand government action to reopen the mines.

Later, Senator Ellender, D., La., told reporters he thought the report "could well mean that the White House is preparing the public for the necessary steps of seizure."

Seizure Not Likely

Seizure, however, was not being mentioned seriously among labor department officials as a likely next step—for the big reason, they said privately, that the government has no assurances that the 400,000 idle miners would return to their jobs even then.

What is expected first, instead, is some government suggestion of possible compromise proposals which might form the basis for real collective bargaining between Lewis and the operators.

The immediate hurdle to full give-and-take discussions is Lewis' demand for some $3,000,000 in back pay for holidays occurring since Mr. Truman wiped out the wartime [illegible] of any change in national policy.

Strike Picture

Here is the way the strike looks to those in close contact with the principal parties.

1. Lewis' demand for a union-administered health and welfare fund still is the key to settlement. (The operators say he wants a 10-cent royalty on each ton of coal mined—enough to net his union $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually.)

Lewis apparently is fairly well satisfied with the operators' oft-expressed desire to do something on his other big non-wage proposal, improved mine safety.

2. Whatever the powerful Southern Coal Producers association, represented by former Nebraska Sen. Edward R. Burke, elects to do about the holiday issue will be followed by the other operators.

3. In other respects, the U. S. Steel corporation—because of its ramifications in the coal industry—holds the balance of power in making whatever new contract comes out of the present deadlock.

Sullen Peace, Probe Follow Alcatraz Riot

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6 (U.P.)—A sullen, tense peace reigned today over Alcatraz federal prison where three convicts in solitary confinement awaited possible murder indictments for their part in a bloody mutiny which cost five lives.

Warden James A. Johnston said an investigation thus far has disclosed six ringleaders in the three-day riot, three of whom were dead, the others in solitary confinement. He said they waged their bitter fight with only a rifle, a .45 caliber Colt automatic pistol, a knife and a few gas grenades. They had 50 rounds of ammunition for the rifle and 21 for the pistol.

Probe Underway

An investigation was under way to ascertain how many other convicts, if any, were involved.

At the same time, federal bureau of investigation agents moved cautiously through the twisted steel, uprooted fixtures and bullet-scarred concrete walls of the prison in search of evidence which the U. S. government plans to lay before the grand jury.

The three other convicts named by Johnston as actively participating in the riot were Sam Shockley, 36, Oklahoma bank robber and kidnaper; Myron Edgar Thompson, 29, kidnaper and slayer from Amarillo, Tex.; and Clarence Carnes, 19, Oklahoma kidnaper and murderer.

Big Escape Planned

At a press conference unprecedented in the "rock's" history Saturday night, Johnston said that the bold break last Thursday was planned as a major escape from the prison most hated by the underworld.

Johnston said that the convicts' inability to open an intricate electric lock on a steel [illegible] the solitary cells doomed the [illegible]

Marine Chief Sees Plot to Scuttle Corps

WASHINGTON, May 6 (U.P.)—Gen. Alexander A. Vandegrift, commandant of the marine corps, accused the war department today of harboring a "well advanced and carefully integrated" plot to scuttle his band of fighting leathernecks.

And, he told the senate naval affairs committee, the proposed merger of the armed services would give the army the opportunity to carry out its aim.

"Marines have played a significant and useful part in the military structure of this nation since its birth," he said. "But despite that fact, passage of the unification legislation as now framed will in all probability spell extinction for the marine corps."

Vandegrift told the committee that a "series of facts" has convinced him of one thing—"that the war department is determined to reduce the marine corps to a position of studied military ineffectiveness."

A bill embodying the administration's plan for merging the army and navy under a single department of common defense has been approved by the senate military affairs committee. The naval affairs committee, which probably will lead the floor fight against the bill, is, however, conducting its own hearings.

Ministers Set Discussion of Balkan Pacts

PARIS, May 6 (AP)—Deadlocked on the Italo-Yugoslav frontier issue, the foreign ministers council instructed its deputies today to start examination of the Balkan treaties, beginning with Romania, an American informant said.

The four ministers of Russia, Britain, France and the United States reviewed their position on the Italian treaty and found the question of Trieste and the Italian-Yugoslav frontier was the key difficulty. Thereupon U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes proposed that the deputies be instructed to start work on Balkan treaties.

Stand Firm

Neither the Americans nor the Russians would budge from their stands on the Italian treaty at the meeting today.

The U. S. secretary told his three colleagues, the informant [illegible] proposal would violate the London conference decision to base the new frontier on ethic grounds.

Byrnes' proposal of Saturday to hold a plebiscite in the disputed region between the proposed American and Russian lines was not raised at today's meeting.

Review Dispute

Other disputed points reviewed at the three-hour session were the future of Italy's colonies and reparations. It was stated that a report of a reparations study commission would be ready in a few days.

With the switch to Balkan problems, the possibility was seen that the United States might offer concessions in the Balkans to break the deadlock on Italy.

Strikers Fail to Okay New Talks

HAILEY, May 6 — A union meeting in Hailey Sunday failed to bring any resumption of negotiations with the Triumph mine to end the strike which has halted production at the mine since April 12.

Tommy Taylor, chairman of the union negotiating committee, reported that no definite action had been taken at the union meeting. Charles Sprittles, president of the local of the CIO Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, was not available for comment.

Approximately 160 men have been idle by the strike in which the workers are seeking a 30 per cent wage increase and reinstatement of two discharged employes.

Stan Laurel Weds

YUMA, Ariz., May 6 (AP)—Comedian Stan Laurel was married today to Ida Kitseva Raphael in the home of Peace Justice R. H. Lutes.

Lutes said the blonde woman, who gave her age as 39 and her birthplace as Russia, did not further identify herself. Her description resembled that of Laurel's third wife, Vera Ivanova Shuvalova, Russian dancer known as Illiana, from whom he was divorced in 1939.

Potter, Again Stricken, Out Of '46 Race

Reported as fair Monday afternoon in the county general hospital was the condition of Ben E. Potter, Kimberly, county commissioner.

He was admitted Sunday morning after having suffered Saturday morning his third paralytic stroke in two months, his wife said. The attack has affected his left side.

Potter is now completing his fourth term as commissioner. He took office in January, 1938, and has held his post ever since. His present term is for two years. Mrs. Potter said although he wished to run again this year his illness ruled out such action.

"He loves the people and always wanted to serve them," she said.

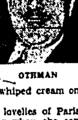

Unable to farm his 80 acres for several years, Potter has delegated the work to his son, Ray Potter. The place is four miles east and two miles south of Kimberly. The Potter couple came here in 1914 from Edna, Kan., with their son. Their two daughters were born later. They are Mrs. Robert Durk, Pioche, Nev., and Mrs. Clifford Herndon, the latter now staying at the Potter home.

The commissioner celebrated last March 4, his 58th birthday

Genuine U. S. Soda Fountain in Paris Develops Big Hit With French Cuties

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

PARIS, May 6 (U.P.)—You think, like I used to think, that an American GI woos a Parisienne mademoiselle with cognac and a dish of truffles? Haw! He does a better job of it, and quicker, with a double chocolate malted.

OTHMAN

It's the doggonedest thing I ever saw—French cuties being lured into big evenings by American city slickers using pineapple marshmallow sundaes with cherries and whipped cream on top as bait.

Who among the lovelies of Paris wants bubbly water when she can get a genuine double dip strawberry ice cream soda and two straws that signal with slupping noises her need for a refill? The champagne Charlies haven't got a chance.

The scene of this gooey debauchery is a genuine American soda fountain known as the Sugar Bowl and operated by the army on the Rue du Havre. It is smack dab against the department store Printemps, where floor walkers wear Prince Alberts and salesgirls hope against hope to be invited next door.

The Sugar Bowl, called also GI heaven, is a conscious effort by experts in the psychology of homesickness to drop into the center of Paris a piece of Wichita, Kan., or perhaps Pittsburgh, Pa.

It's all there—a row of gleaming malted switeroos, a red tank that gushes cokes, jars of chopped nuts, syrup pumps, and—behind piles of banana split dishes on the back bar—a mural depicting the statue of liberty. Miss Liberty looks pretty happy and well fed as if she also had just consumed a three-flavor special with pecans and caramel syrup.

An ice cream soda costs 10 francs, or about eight cents. A malted for his girl sets back a khaki-clad swain 17 francs. I ordered up a chocolate ice cream soda (for myself, and the French waitress, a pert trick with blue eyes and a fluffy apron, said:

"Hokay beeg boy, eets coming up."

She said she spoke no English. Whatever it was she did speak carried a Brooklyn accent. I hope this dispatch does not sound too spoofing, because it is remarkable how good that soda tasted. I've only been without sweets now for two weeks, and I crave sugar like De Quincy craved opium. So the Sugar Bowl not only promotes romance and cements international relations in rich chocolate sauce, but it provides calories where calories most are needed. That isn't all.

The upstairs, reserved for hardened rounders, is a beer and ice cream parlor. I wish I were young again and had a zinc-lined stomach. Then I could follow the custom and drink my beer with my ice cream, alternating sip and bites until the time came to order more beer and ice cream.

The Sugar Bowl's fame has spread so far and the demand for the gooey refreshments has become so wide that numerous enterprising [illegible] men have set up their own [illegible] parlors. The poor devils [illegible] have not got the knack [illegible] gredients.

Their ice cream [illegible] They use [illegible] sodas. [illegible] charine, and [illegible] soda fountains [illegible] cus to an institution [illegible] before was so important. [illegible]

Girl Testifies Youth Sought To Attack Her

Blond Virginia Dahlquist, 15, Twin Falls, told quietly in district court Monday morning her version of Mason Hattori's alleged assault with intent to rape her last March 10.

Hattori, 19, Twin Falls, is a Japanese-American defendant who assertedly molested the girl in the railroad yard area as she was on route to her home in Rock creek canyon, the state charges.

The girl said she encountered the defendant in the area and resisted him by bites and scratches. She fled the scene and met Mrs. Walter Osterloh, Twin Falls, and told her what happened.

Heard Scream

Mrs. Osterloh testified that while on her way home in a car she saw Virginia with a man whom she could not identify. The woman said she heard a scream. When the car was parked at her home nearby, Mrs. Osterloh ran back to meet the girl who she said was hysterical.

"I wanted to make love to her," the defendant was quoted as having told M. E. Rountree, city policeman who was on the stand and made the assertion.

Continuing during this opening day of trial, the officer said he had questioned Hattori at the police station. He said the defendant asserted he had wanted to walk home with the girl. She refused.

Hattori said he tried to throw her to the ground so that he could make love to her, Rountree alleged. The boy's face was scratched and bitten, the officer asserted.

Doctor Testifies

Dr. J. H. Murphy, Twin Falls county physician, said he had examined the defendant March 11 in police headquarters. He noted three abrasions on his face. As to the cause of the injury, he said only that the scratches were caused by a "blunt instrument."

O. H. Dahlquist, father of the girl, testified briefly that he had seen his daughter when she arrived home the evening of March 10.

Jury consists of Robert Rayl, Frank R. Gettys, Jess Eastman, R. H. Baxter, O. L. Ainsworth, Jason Bennett, Mrs. Helen Hyde, Harry Musgrave, Tony Britt, Mrs. Rose Almquist, Robert M. McBride and Charles W. Bonk.

The state rested and District Judge James W. Porter recessed court until trial resuming at 1:30 p.m. Representing the state was Prosecutor E. M. Sweeley. James R. Bothwell is attorney for Hattori.

Wild Animal Circus Books Magic Valley

The circus—a defunct institution in these parts during war years—will start returning to Twin Falls and Magic Valley this week end.

The C. R. Montgomery wild animal circus will perform in seven communities of this area starting on May 15 and extending through May 21. In Twin Falls the circus will perform at 2 and 8 p. m. on Monday, May 20, on the old circus grounds off Blue Lakes boulevard south.

Other stops, each with performances at the same hours, will be:

Glenns Ferry May 15; Buhl May 16; Burley May 17; Rupert May 18; Jerome May 19 (sponsored by the Jerome VFW post) Gooding May 21.

The Montgomery show carries one of the largest wild animal traveling zoos and menageries in the show world, and ample time is afforded before each performance to see the animals. A huge all-steel-and-fireproof top holds thousands of people and three rings. Acts include acrobats, gymnasts, aerialists and animals.

Security Office Head Maps Tour

Wayne Tucker, manager of the Twin Falls social security board field office, will visit the north side counties this week for the purpose of talking to claimants, beneficiaries, and others interested in old-age and survivors insurance.

Tucker recently returned after three years service in the navy, succeeds Mrs. Loretta M. Klimes, manager for the past two years.

On Wednesday, May 8, Tucker will be at the employment office in Jerome at 9:30, the postoffice in Shoshone at 1, the district court room in Gooding at 2:30, and the postoffice in Wendell at 3:15. He will be in Hailey May 9 where he may be contacted through the public assistance office.

In reviewing activities of the field office during the war years, Tucker noted that 471 monthly old-age and survivors insurance benefits were in force at the end of 1945 in the area served by this office.

During the war years, an unusually large number of workers over 65 years of age continued in employment because of the demands for manpower in the production emergency. Since V-J day, however, an up-swing in the number of claims for old-age and survivors insurance benefits has been noted, indicating that more insured workers at age 65 and over are taking advantage of their earned rights under this program.

Tucker pointed out that his office has no means of notifying all workers or survivors when they become eligible for benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program.

Garage Flooded; Kimberly School Buses Can't Run

KIMBERLY, May 6 — This town's grade, junior and senior high school youngsters showed good attendance today although four school buses were temporarily out of commission when water from a community lateral flooded the bus garage.

J. B. Fridley, superintendent of schools, said that a headgate had been left open during the night and the water entered the cellar garage near the high school. Water rose above the motors and the accident was discovered this morning by Dan Sudweeks, janitor, who closed the headgate.

During the morning a city fire truck was pumping the water out and Fridley believed the buses would be able to transport the youngsters home after school today.

The youngsters were brought to school in the morning by their parents' machines. Unharmed was the Excelsior school bus which is based elsewhere in Kimberly. It transports rural pupils to Excelsior school and also brings students to the Kimberly high school.

Fridley stressed that the open headgate was not the blame of the Twin Falls Canal company for it was a community lateral. The gate was left open through oversight, he said.

Coal Shortages Force Brownout

DETROIT, May 6 (AP)—The city council today approved reestablishment of wartime brownout regulations "for the duration of the emergency" to conserve vital fuel supplies.

Although the proposed ordinance does not come up for formal vote until tomorrow night, its approval today by the committee of the whole indicates there will be no opposition to the measure.

The brownout ordinance calls for elimination of nighttime marquee lighting, electric advertising and lighted store window displays, and minimum use of heat, electric power and gas both at night and in daytime.

Poor Weather May Decrease Duck Number

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—It is not great weather for ducks.

As a result of this and increased hunting in recent years, the American duck hunter may find his sport curtailed this fall.

Up in the prairie provinces of Canada, the duck factory of the continent, where marshes and lakes should be overflowing now as the ducks get down to the business of raising broods, drouth is reported. Marshes are drying up.

Depend on Weather

This is especially bad news because state and federal game commissioners say that after two years of declining duck population, prospects for the fall depend largely on this season's weather.

A report on Canadian weather conditions just received from Winnipeg by B. W. Cartright, chief naturalist of Ducks Unlimited, Inc., says that until March there was a lot of snow and things looked fine. Then dry weather set in.

Now the ducks are nesting earlier than usual, fires already have caused damage in some marshes and prospects are poor, except in well-watered areas of Manitoba, north central Saskatchewan and central Alberta. Heavy rains in May and June might change things.

In March, even before the drouth, the National Audubon society recommended cutting the hunting season from 80 to 30 days, and reducing the bag limit from 10 to five birds a day. Also in March, the Frank Walton Horst recommended that the season be shortened and bag limits reduced where necessary.

Hunting to Increase

Most game authorities in representative states report in an Associated Press survey that more hunters than ever are expected to take to the blinds this fall.

Prosperity as well as the return of service men and lifting of wartime restrictions, they say, account for this trend. One game warden commented "the workingman has lots of money and no place to spend it except on hunting and fishing."

Last season, 1,700,000 hunters killed a record 22,000,000 ducks and geese in the United States. The wild life service expects a 10 per cent increase in the number of hunters this fall and some state figure there will be as much as a 50 per cent increase in hunting pressure.

Price for Farm Boosted $6,000

BUHL, May 6—Actual price paid for 160 acres of land near here recently has been revealed as $56,000.

The farm, sold to Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Sharp, Filer, had a $6,000 mortgage, according to Everett Babcock, Buhl real estate man who made the sale. The farm was sold by Walter and Otto Yaehl, Long Beach, Calif.

The purchasers paid off the mortgage and paid an additional $50,000 for the property, Babcock said.

Addition of the unreported $6,000 would make the average price to $350 per acre.

RECEIVES WATER POST

AT GOLDEN WEDDING

BUHL, May 5 — Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Crismo have just returned from an eastern trip into the Dakotas and Minnesota. In Minneapolis they attended a family reunion of Mrs. Crismo's family, and also the golden wedding of her sister, Mrs. William Mengelkoch, who has many friends in Buhl, having visited here in past times.

Boom Village Helping Town Across Ocean

RICHLAND, Wash., May 6 (AP)—Richland, a boom town born of atomic warfare, helped to win the war. Now, as its share in helping to win the peace, Richland has adopted an ancient city in the "good land" section of Gelderland, the Netherlands.

Its protege is Tiel, devasted by artillery shells and aerial bombs while the allies were driving the nazis out of Holland.

Part of Anniversary

Paul Nissen, publisher of the Richland Villager, says his weekly journal promoted the rehabilitation of Tiel as part of this atom bomb plant town's third anniversary and the first birthday of the Villager.

"We started about a month and a half ago with the double purpose of celebrating the part Richland played in winning the war by assuming our just part in the winning of the peace.

"First observance, initiated by the villagers, was a series of public forums on major questions, problems and issues connected with the peace.

"Then we sponsored the idea of helping some community in Europe which suffered from the war. We worked through the American Red Cross and the American Relief for Holland, Inc., and were given the town of Tiel to aid.

Raise Funs

"For the past month and a half there's hardly been a group or civic activity that hasn't had the Tiel fund as its beneficiary. There have been dances, plays, entertainments, 'pots' of all sorts for the fund."

Richland's 15,000 residents were asked to raise $3,600 in the six weeks drive which wound up May 3 with a ceremonial cutting and serving of a birthday cake and speeches by bomb plant officials at a benefit concert.

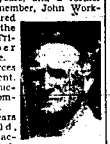

Nissen says he thinks the "adoption" plan might well be taken up by other American communities.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

BUHL, May 6—Pvt Wallace Hopkins, with Mrs. Hopkins, is on a 13 day furlough, and visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hopkins. Formerly stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., he is being transferred to Ft. Riley, Kan.

Former Mayor of Richfield Retires

RICHFIELD, May 6 — Former chairman of the village board (mayor) for four years, and a former school board member, John Workman has retired as manager of the Richfield Trio State Lumber yard and store.

WORKMAN

Ill health forces his retirement. Gus Knodle succeeds his as company manager.

During 20 years in Richfield, Workman was active in civic affairs. Under his village board leadership new modern water pipe lines were installed, doing away with the obsolete wooden pipes, and the Richfield cemetery association was organized. He has served 29 years with the lumber firm, and was manager at Hunton for nine years before coming here. He and Mrs. Workman plan to remain in Richfield for the present.

PURCHASES CLUB

SHOSHONE, May 6 — Lee Bertia has purchased the Sunset club from John Ascuera.

Government of Chinese Lauded As "Christian"

Dr. Robert M. Hopkins, national president of the United Christian Missionary society, Sunday night asserted that "if there is a government in the world under Christian leadership it is the Chinese government."

He said that the Chinese have evaded the issue of reparations and are trying to develop a Christian democracy.

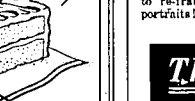

Dr. Hopkins, speaking before Christian church members, emphasized the missionary opportunities created by World war II particularly in the far east. He reviewed the missionary work of Christian churches throughout the world and emphasized the need of an aggressive program to rebuild schools, churches and hospitals destroyed during the war.

The need for food in war devastated areas was stressed and the importance of money compared to tangible goods was minimized.

DELEGATE NAMED

SHOSHONE, May 6 — Ernest Gerner, newly-elected president of the Shoshone Rotary club, has been named delegate to the 110th district convention of Rotary to be held at Ogden, Utah, May 13 and 14. Other Shoshone Rotarians are also planning to attend.

NO ICE CREAM AND CAKE

Secretary of Commerce Henry Wallace has again taken up the controversial subject of party discipline of Democratic congressmen who vote against the administration. This time he did not advocate a purge of the stubborn brethren. But his advice to a party rally in San Francisco did suggest denying them committee appointments.

The secretary said he wasn't trying to stifle the free speech or free vote of any congressman. "He can let his conscience be his guide. But he should not expect any ice cream and cake if he has set fire to the living room," was the way Mr. Wallace put it.

There was just enough mixture of general and specific in Mr. Wallace's speech to cause wonder whether he was offering a program of broad, long-range reform or prescribing an immediate antidote for the Republican-conservative Democratic coalition that is upsetting the administration's legislative apple cart. But one thing is certain. It was Henry Wallace, practical politician, and not Henry Wallace, idealist, who was speaking.

Mr. Wallace would have a majority member of congress back the major issues on which he and his party were elected (the party platform, apparently). Then, on new issues, he would have him abide by the majority decision of his party's congressional leaders at a party caucus.

That is of course, is in line with the way our government works. We accept the majority decision in election of a President. We accept the vote of a majority in congress for the enactment of laws, and of a supreme court majority in deciding upon their validity and interpretation.

But all this acceptance carries with it the right to howl, complain, denounce, and rebel. That is not the case with Mr. Wallace's plan. The dissident majority member would have to button his lip and vote with the majority. To follow the guidance of a protesting conscience would mean losing his ice cream and cake, and possibly being charged with political arson as well.

Under such a plan, any important piece of legislation introduced by the major party would be sure of passage. The only expression of guaranteed personal opinion, for or against, would come from the minority side of the aisle. The majority would debate and vote en bloc.

If it were possible for a political party to chart a specific four-year program and, if elected, stick to it, Mr. Wallace's plan might seem more workable. But everyone, including Mr. Wallace, knows that a party platform is mostly a vote-catcher to which neither electors nor elected pay much attention after the campaign closes. Furthermore, the platform can't anticipate changes or emergencies.

Both parties' platforms of 1944 are full of forgotten promises. Neither contains anything about universal military training, draft extension, full employment, merger of the armed services, OPA extension or national health legislation.

Mr. Wallace implies that administration-backed legislation is always right. He also implies that voters have the chance to "discipline" congressmen only at election time, and that otherwise the congressional party caucus is always right in its majority opinion. Further, he would penalize a majority member for thinking and acting against the prescribed tide.

The secretary's suggestions are worth thinking about. He is right in wanting to do something about negative obstructionism in congress when it clearly thwarts the bi-partisan wishes of the country's voters. But it does seem that his drastic cure might turn out to be as bad as the disease.

PAYMENT IN SHIPS

The United States has been allotted about 18 per cent of Germany's merchant fleet, in accordance with a reparation plan whereby 15 allied nations divide the fleet in proportion to the tonnage which they lost during the war.

This is entirely fair. But what will we do with the ships? Already this country has the world's largest merchant fleet. It is costing a lot of money to tie up many of the ships, which, though indispensable in war, are now too slow for peacetime competition.

American operators are concentrating on the fast Victory-type ship for postwar commerce. Unless the German vessels assigned to this country are of a comparable type, which is very doubtful, the payment in kind for wartime losses could well turn into a liability.

A practical and generous solution might be to assign the German ships to some of the smaller maritime nations in Europe which lost a large proportion of their fleets—though small in tonnage compared with our losses—and which depend largely on maritime commerce for a national livelihood.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

PRESTIGE — Harold L. Ickes and James Roosevelt may not have checked the identity and ideologies of their companions before they agreed to head up the Independent Committee of Arts, Sciences and Professions as executive chairman and political director, respectively. In their naivete they may have thought they were simply joining an organization dedicated to keeping alive the spirit of the original new deal.

When they get a chance to look around at their new-found friends, they will discover that they have landed in the midst of a communist hand quite as devoted to Soviet Russia as to the interests of the United States.

The latter has acted openly of their success in setting up ICASP as one of their postwar "fronts" that adds prestige and respectability to the infiltration movement. At the recent convention of the communist party speakers reported that they were working together with "satisfactory results."

In fact, enthusiastic Reds started out in the part in rounding up the so-called artists, scientists and professional men.

SNAKE DANCE — ICASP, according to its own membership list, includes many men and women who were once prominent in units with such deliberately deceptive names as the American Peace Mobilization, the American League for Peace and Democracy and the American Youth for Democracy, which was the successor to the Young Communists league.

These groups picketed the White House in the Roosevelt regime in protest against American aid to the allies at the start of the war in 1939. But following the attack on Russia, they demanded the capital with demands that the U. S. rush more aid to Moscow than to other battle fronts.

Now that Stalin appears willing and ready to renege on his promises to and alliances with England and the United States, they demand that the western powers accede to the kremlin's program of territorial, economic and political domination.

In short, they follow the "party line" at all times, even though Moscow's changing policies make their political parade resemble a college boy's snake dance.

RADICAL—Although the former secretary of the interior and the oldest son of the late President may not be among the other dominant figures in ICASP, editors, contributors and backers of such left-wing publications as the Daily Worker and the New Masses.

The organization has also drawn heavily on Hollywood and Broadway personalities known for their radical views, including Paul Robeson, Frank Sinatra and Norman Corwin. They have enlisted such artists and scientists as Joe Davidson, the sculptor; Archibald MacLeish, the new dealish poet; and Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, who headed the atomic bomb project. Their favorite politician is ex-Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, director of UNRRA.

ICASP lined up with Commerce Secretary Henry A. Wallace in supporting Johannes Steel in the recent congressional election in New York, although the regular Democrats had a candidate in that contest.

CRITICS—Although it is understood that they receive large salaries for their work, it is doubtful whether the former cabinet member or Mrs. Roosevelt will take an active part in ICASP's political campaigns. They were not hired for that purpose.

The value of their name has already given a tremendous boost to this leftist group, and emboldened communist individuals and cells in every national field—politics, labor, cultural, congress and government.

Oddly enough, the Ickes-Roosevelt organization has not yet made its influence felt in such high places as the White House and the state department. The Truman administration united from appeasement in defiance of Stalin almost simultaneously with the birth of the pro-Soviet unit.

The cronies of Mr. Truman, may be that "Jimmie" and Honest Harold" have become two of the chief critics of the Missouri crowd that now runs things at Washington.

HUMOR — Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley's parliamentary humor is normally somewhat heavy-footed. But in a recent debate on the proposed British loan the sweet-singer from the Kentucky blue grass floored Republican opponents with a rather sparkling anecdote.

Sen. Taft, of Ohio had concluded a lengthy speech in which he advocated an outright gift of $1,500,000,000 to England, the sum to be spent for purchases in this country. He argued that, as after World war I, London could not and would not repay the $3,750,000,000 advance. Sen. Homer E. Capehart of Indiana chimed in with the suggestion that $1,500,000,000 be turned over on a straight interest-bearing basis.

"You two," said the Kentuckian, "remind me of the supposedly deaf man who was asked by a friend for a loan of five dollars. 'What's that?' queried the prospective lender, putting a hearing device to his ear.

"'I asked you to lend me ten dollars,' said the friend. 'Oh,' replied the deaf person, 'I thought you asked for only five dollars the first time.'"

VIEWS OF OTHERS

AN 'OBJECTIONABLE' ELEMENT

In the days before the white man knew the potentialities of oil, the Indians along the Ohio river called it "stouronton," meaning "Oh, how much there is of it!" At times the dark, brownish-black scum of the Ohio would catch fire and burn for hundreds of miles.

It wasn't until 1859 that anybody deliberately set out to drill for stouronton. The first attempt to utilize it really was a failure. Whatever illuminating sene produced was too explosive to use in lamps and caused axle grease to remain too thin for lubrication. This condition was caused by the "objectionable" element called gasoline, which was sluiced off into dumps. But scientists are not easily discouraged. They went to work on the problem and turned an actual menace into one of the greatest servants of mankind.

That has been the history of private enterprise in the United States—it would not accept defeat. Moreover, oil is an outstanding example of industry turning waste into wealth, an incident highlighting one of the classical contradictions of our times.

For some reason, capitalistic enterprise is pictured very often as an extravagant consumer of resources, a greedy exploiter of nature's bounty. And yet who but individual, capitalistic enterprise has given to mankind the thousands of ingenious schemes for wringing the utmost ounce of use out of the products of nature? Those who espouse government as the provider and initiator should be reminded that no government, here or abroad, ever has done a fraction of the good for mankind that the individual has and by its nature, never will. History is an unending tale of resistance to encroaching government.—Pocatello Tribune.

COMICS RANK THIRD

Perhaps the most depressing assumption about the modern American newspaper has been that it is dependent on comic strips. Most editors, certainly have let themselves become convinced that nobody much would bother to read the news about local and national and foreign events unless it were spiced with the day's defelopments in the Bumstead, the Yokum, the Tracy, and the Palooka families . . .

It is both amusing and enlightening, therefore, to peruse the results of a poll among newspaper readers in Cleveland by the Press, after a 32-day strike had suspended all papers. Asked what they had missed most, 59 per cent said "local news," 36 per cent "world news," and 24.75 per cent "comics."

This verdict is the more significant because a great deal of general news, both local and national, came in by radio, whereas readers bereft of their newspapers had absolutely no access to annals of the comic world. Thus a newspaper famine now and then does serve a useful purpose . . .

It was a good lesson, both for readers and editors.—The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky.

POT SHOTS

CHUCK HOLES

Dear Pots:

We hear lots of talk nowadays about making Idaho a tourist state and telling the country about its scenic wonders. But how, oh how, can a poor tourist get anything but a rotten impression of the Gem state when the roads—and federal aid highways, filled with chuck holes and generally in poor condition?

Recently I made a trip to the middle west and as soon as we reached the state line leaving Idaho U. S. highway 30 was in good condition. In all other states through which we traveled the hitchway had been kept up, but not in Idaho. Why not spend less money on advertising and more on road repair?

ADD, SCIENTIFIC METHODS

We understand from strictly unofficial sources that Jean Eiselein, who assists hubby, Gordon, in our T-N photo and engraving plant, has invented a new way of heating the equipment shortage.

Numerous gadgets are manufactured for measuring the heat, but Jean's method is exposing sensitized paper to light while making enlargements, but said gadgets are expensive and there are a lot of trouble to use anyway.

So Jean just fortifies herself with a stick of gum before starting to work in the darkroom and hits a steady pace by the time she gets ready to make the enlargements. When she snaps on the light in the enlarger she's chewing at a rate of 60 chews per minute, and, if she wants an exposure of say six seconds, she just counts six steady chews and lets it go at that.

Judging by the nice prints she turns out, the timing must be practically perfect.

WANTA BE A PEN PAL?

(Pot's note—This's was addressed to the gentleman who promptly forwarded it to Pot Shots.)

Dear Postmaster:

I'm writing you a few lines to see if I can possibly get me a few pen pals—maybe someone would care to write to a girl out here in Hawaii. I would appreciate it very much, if it wouldn't be too much of a bother. I'm 24 years old and I would like my pen pals between the ages of 20-40 years —both men and women.

Thank you.

COMING UP

Pot Shots:

Our T-N staffer who calls up the hospital every day to inquire as to whether there's been any accident or emergency cases admitted is beginning to wonder.

He called the other afternoon and after the phone rang several times, it was answered by a breathless nurse.

For the umpteenth time he placed the old query about whether there'd been any accidents, etc.

Sounding slightly irked the nurse said, "Not yet."

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW

BOB HOPE

I went to see one of those double-feature horror pictures the other night at my neighborhood theater and I was never so frightened in my life! . . . The usher almost caught me shrieking in.

It was a very exciting picture and when the monster broke loose and crept up behind the heroine, I gave out with a blood curdling scream! It was silly, I know, but it was so realistic I could actually feel something creeping up on me, also . . . Then I realized it was only my long winter underwear! But I wasn't the only one in the audience to scream . . . In fact, the girl sitting next to me didn't stop screaming until she had the usher throw me out.

The highlight of the picture was when the mad scientist was in his laboratory working all his gadgets in an effort to put the breath of life into a clutching-claw machine. He turns knobs, pulls levers, then parks fly, wires hum, bubbles pop . . . And then suddenly there is an explosion . . . He has made a pound of butter!

The producers know when they've got something good and they always manage to kill off their monsters in such a way as to insure their possible return for a sequel. So far, Dracula has had more stakes driven into him than a piece of California real estate.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

There are several phases of Elliott Roosevelt's activities and associations, in addition to his defaulted loans, which would be thoroughly investigated by the appropriate committees of congress if the Democrats were not in control and determined to suppress all information which would tend to discredit the character with which the party has endowed his late father.

Practical politicians on both sides recognize that this character is one of the greatest assets of the Democratic party and the Republicans therefore are as eager to discredit it as the Democrats are to preserve it. Whether the Republicans, in a similar position, would act otherwise we do not know.

Mr. Coolidge did not try to protect the Harding administration, but it would be naive to expect that the Democrats would give him credit for virtuous motives. Such is the cynicism of the game of politics that Republicans might not attribute such motives to him.

Certain operations of Howard Hughes, the rich Houston, Tex., and Hollywood manufacturer, motion picture producer and aviation magnate, would come under scrutiny were the Republicans returned to power in congress.

Hughes and Elliott Roosevelt are intimate friends. Hughes is also a friend and might be called a protege of Jesse Jones, of Houston, the former secretary of commerce. The Joneses have known him since his childhood and regard him highly.

In 1943, the reconstruction finance corporation put up $18,000,000 to enable Hughes and Henry Kaiser to build three enormous wood and plastic cargo planes, many times twice the size of the B-29 and capable of carrying 650 persons. Construction began at Culver City, Cal., but Kaiser withdrew when it developed that the $18,000,000 would not produce even one of these ships.

Jones, as head of the RFC, told Hughes he himself would have to pay any excess cost and Hughes carried on. The ship has not been completed, however, and it may never fly. The experience may be worth something to aeronautical science, but there is, of course, no standard by which to appraise the value of such information.

The army air forces had become interested in another Hughes plane in 1939. General H. H. Arnold states that it seemed suitable for military use and that the design was highly interesting, but durambold construction was to be used and the ship presented the promise of improvement in the aerodynamic and structural arts. Aluminum was scarce and General Arnold thought it might be possible to get quantity production in spite of the shortage.

On July 1, 1942, President Roosevelt personally inquired about this ship which General Arnold describes as suitable for high-speed, long-range, high-altitude missions. The next year, the Germans were knocking down many American photo-reconnaissance pilots in P-38's.

"We are going to see if we would do the job and outrun the German fighters," General Arnold wrote. "The British Mosquito had proved itself but we were unable to get Mosquitoes in sufficient quantities. The Hughes airplane was the only one already designed which appeared entirely suitable and which could be produced in time to do any good."

On Sept. 3, 1943, General Arnold "verbally" directed that 100 of these ships be bought from Hughes. The aluminum shortage had passed and the wooden construction had been abandoned in favor of metal.

The contract with Hughes was terminated last September without the delivery of a single ship. The army still expects to take two, however, for experiments. The 100 ships were to have cost $48,000,000 plus a maximum fee of four per cent. Thus about $60,000,000 of public money was committed to Hughes projects which produced nothing.

Elliott Roosevelt returned from Europe in the autumn of 1945 and served for a period at the war department as chief of the reconnaissance branch. He was head man and it was during this time that General Arnold gave his verbal order for the 100 Hughes planes. For a number of reasons, technical and industrial, Maj.-Gen. O. P. Echols had opposed the adoption of this plane to the end, but was overruled.

Setting forth his position, General Arnold wrote that money was never a first consideration when American lives and American victory were at stake.

"I let contracts for anything which offered a probability of speeding victory. I would be the last to claim that this process was economical in dollars. In fact, I have never claimed that war is economical."

When Elliott Roosevelt, then a colonel in the army air corps, returned from England on Nov. 15, 1944, the Associated Press story said that John E. Meyers, "public relations representative for Howard Hughes," was his host in New York where Elliott in those days generally stopped at the Waldorf on his visits to town. Hughes also goes to the Waldorf and maintains an apartment there.

"He (Elliott) was a guest of Mr. Meyers at a party at the El Morocco night club last night," the AP said. "Mr. Meyers said Colonel Roosevelt would go to Washington late today."

Less than 3 month later, on Dec. 9, when Elliott married Miss Faye Emerson at Grand Canyon National park, Ariz., the press accounts said Meyers again was at his side to give the bride away and that Jack Frye, the president of TWA, the big airline, was best man. Howard Hughes owns the controlling interest in TWA.

Last December, Pan-American Airways generally regarded as the pioneer in trans-Atlantic navigation, petitioned the civil aeronautics board to modify routes which had been allotted to itself. TWA and American Airlines.

Pan-American's petition said the routes assigned would give TWA and American a monopoly of American-flag air service to Italy and the Soviet Union and to most of France and Germany.

"We ask the board to reconsider whether it actually desires to be guilty of the gross favoritism to TWA," the petition said. Further it charged that the board had practically thrown Pan-American out of France and Ireland "for the benefit of TWA."

Sam Pryor, a prominent eastern Republican and former national treasurer of the party, is one of the chief executives of Pan-American.

Filer Over Top On Cancer Drive

FILER, May 6—Filer has gone over the top in the cancer control drive, according to Mrs. Ivan A. Anderson, chairman. "Although collections from several sources have not yet been turned in receipts have already exceeded $700, "Mrs. Anderson said.

"Outstanding work was done by the high school, which contributed $103."

Procedure in First Rentals Told by OPA

Procedure for landlords renting dwellings for the first time to register maximum rents and have their rent adjusted was outlined Saturday by C. W. Witham, area rent control director.

Witham explained that with many veterans returning to Twin Falls, many families are opening up portions of their homes to veterans unable to find other housing accommodations. In most cases these housing units are being rented for the first time.

"Whenever premises are being rented for the first time the landlord may set his own rent with the understanding that it will be subject to adjustment later to conform with the prevailing rates for comparable accommodations rented in this area," Witham said. "If the landlord prefers, the area rent control office will inform him of the prevailing rent for comparable quarters and give him a rental range comment."

If the landlord wants to fix his own rent the first rent he collects becomes the maximum rent. However he must register the property with the area rent control office within 30 days after renting it and the rent may be enforced by the OPA area rent control office if it is not in line.

How to prepare for a festive Mother's Day

Surprise Mother by letting her be waited on for at least one festive meal on Mother's Day. Make it the kind of a meal that Dad and the youngsters can prepare without her help, including the pretty touches to give it a party feeling.

FOR BREAKFAST OR BRUNCH —Start off with chilled tomato juice that's been pepped up with a bit of lemon juice ... about ½ tsp. of lemon juice for each glass of tomato juice for each glass of tomato juice. Garnish with a sprig of parsley or a celery leaf.

Easy Scrambled Eggs have a party air, and are easy to fix. Beat eggs slightly in the top of a double boiler and add 1 tbsp. top milk or evaporated milk for each egg used. Season with salt and pepper and cook until smooth and creamy over boiling water, stirring frequently. Heap on the breakfast toast, cut in triangles, dust with paprika and serve while piping hot.

IF IT'S DINNER FOR MOTHER —Begin with a dressy opening course such as orange and grapefruit chunks in grapefruit shells. Garnish with a berry, cherry or a stuffed olive. When planning the rest of the menu, remember that chicken is a party dish. Plan to fix it Mother's favorite way, and serve it with new boiled potatoes, fresh green beans, peas or asparagus. For dessert, there's no prettier one than ice cream on canned peach halves.

Musial Gets 6 Hits as Cards, Braves Divide

BY JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Judging from the way Stanley Frank Musial has been renewing acquaintances with his pitching "cousins" in the first three weeks of the baseball season, the Cardinal's slugging outfielder may soon add the first big league to attain a 400 batting mark since 1941 and the first National leaguer to reach those heights in 16 years.

With most of the attention focused upon such phenom power hitters as Boston's Ted Williams, New York's Joe DiMaggio and Detroit's Dick Wakefield, the 25-year-old exgob, who interrupted a brilliant career to join the navy at the end of the 1944 season, quietly has been mauling enemy hurlers for 27 hits in 65 appearances at the plate to compile a batting mark of .415.

Gets Six Hits

Musial has been a terror to pitchers from virtually the first day he joined the Red Birds in September, 1941. In a dozen games he rolled up a .426 percentage and two years later he won the batting title with a .357 average. Musial got six hits yesterday as the Cards gained an even split with Boston's Braves, and moved into a first place tie with Brooklyn in the National race. His trio of safeties in the opener helped give the Cards a 7-6 decision and Manager Max Lanier his fourth victory without defeat. The Braves, with big Mort Cooper hobbling his former mates to 10 well scattered blows, turned the tables in the nightcap 10-4.

Pittsburgh knocked the Dodgers out of undisputed first place by sweeping a double-header before an overflow crowd of 37,053. A pinch single by Jimmy Brown scored Jack Barrett for an 11th inning triumph in the opener, 5-4. Another timely hit, by Frankie Gustine in the 10th and final frame, brought a 4-3 victory in the nightcap, halted by Pennsylvania's curfew law.

Scarcity in Hospital

Rip Sewell, who hurled the first nine innings of the opener for Pittsburgh, was taken to a hospital suffering from a gastro intestinal upset.

Ernie Bonham made his 1946 New York Yankee pitching debut a successful one by whipping the White Sox, 4-2, before 33,938. The Yankees, fifth straight victory moved them within a game and a half of the American league leading Red Sox.

Detroit's losing streak soared to seven until Hank Greenberg stepped to the attack by belting a homer and then setting off two-run rally with a single to give the Tigers a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia. The Athletics copped the opener 10-2, as Bobo Newsom, notched his third victory.

Schumacher Beats Reds

Prince Hal Schumacher of the Giants proved he still can beat the Reds when he outpitched Johnny Vander Meer, 5-2, in the opener of a double-header. Cincinnati took the afterpiece, 7-4. Schumacher had beaten the Reds 26 times before entering the service four years ago. After suffering a 13-1 drubbing at the hands of the Cubs in the first game, the Phils came back to win the second game, 7-1, before a record Wrigley field crowd of 45,505.

With shortstop Cecil Travis enjoying a perfect fire for the first at the plate, Washington's Senators overpowered the Cleveland Indians 12-4 to move into a fifth place tie with the White Sox and drop the Tribe into seventh place.

A double header between the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Browns was rained out.

Cowboy Yanks Making Baseball History Strangely New to Twin Falls

BY GEORGE F. REDMOND
Times-News Sports Editor

Earl Bolyard and his Cowboys are making baseball history strangely new to Twin Falls and the Pioneer league. And that is, principally, they are looking like champions early in the season.

They are in first place.

They have won three straight games.

They have won their first series—that with Pocatello—and have taken a leg on the second—that with Salt Lake City.

Not even during 1939 when the Wranglers won the Pioneer league championship did they act like that.

To be in first place this early and to win an opening series are things the Cowboys never have accomplished before.

In the 1939 championship season, they dropped their first two games, the first, 17-1, to Pocatello. They gained their first triumph in the third game, but not until their seventh contest were they able to grab their second victory and their third did not come until the eighth contest.

In 1940, the Wranglers were unable to win until their fourth contest, a 7-2 victory over Boise, and after 10 games had only three victories—the same as the 1946 team has after four battles.

In 1941, the Cowboys won their first game, a 6-2 triumph over Boise, but lost the series and did not win again until eighth game, a 5-4 win over Idaho Falls. After 10 games, they had only three wins.

They did a little better in 1942, the last pre-war season of the Pioneer league, but not much. They beat Idaho Falls in their second game, 5-2, but was unable to take the series. Falls Pioneer league entrants.

However, the Cowboys came up with a 2-1 triumph over Ogden in their seventh game. They won their eighth contest but after 10 games had only three triumphs.

So you see the Cowboy Yanks of '46 have demeanor that's quite unusual for Twin Falls Pioneer league entrants.

COWBOYS GRAB PIONEER LOOP LEAD

Heslet Homers Again; Bees Defeated, 9 to 5

By The Associated Press

The Twin Falls Cowboys rested securely at the top of the Pioneer league standings today as they prepared for play tonight at Salt Lake City in the second game of a three-contest series with the Bees.

The Cowboys won, 9 to 5, yesterday afternoon to move into the league lead as Idaho Falls emerged victorious, 8 to 6, at Ogden, and the Boise Pilots slapped the Pocatello Cardinals into the bottom of the standings with a 17 to 13 win at Pocatello.

All teams will play at the same stands tonight.

Opposing catchers knocked off-of-the-park home runs yesterday as the Cowboys backed up their 12 hits with perfect fielding.

Harry "Buddy" Heslet, Cowboy receiver, smacked out a fourth inning round-tripper to start things off. It was his second circuit wallop of the season. Then Hal Loewe's double, Jack Biller's two-run single, two walks and a Bee error gave the visitors four more counters.

Klusnik Also Homers

Frank Klusnik, new Bee catcher, connected for a four-sacker in the seventh with two men on for the Beet feature attraction. Up to that time Twin Falls had carried a 9-0 lead and Vance Carlson, Twin Falls eighthander, had limited the Bees to three hits.

Carlson got into hot water again in the eighth and was pulled and Dijanich, the second man who pulled the Cowboys out of the fire Saturday night, was sent in. He retired the side in the eighth and kept them idle during the ninth. Carlson was given credit for the win and the loss was chalked up to Whitlow—starter for the Bees.

At Ogden the Russets scored five runs in the opening stanza and the Reds never recovered.

Al Sheets handed walks to Bill Aydelotte and Jim Stanton as the game opened, and then Doug Smith singled Aydelotte home. Jay Hagni drove another walk and Ray McNulty drove in Stanton and Smith. Second baseman McCarthy was hit by a pitched ball and Hagni came home after the catch of Pete Forsyth's fly. Then centerfielder Joe Kiefh threw wild to allow McNulty to take home the fifth score.

Reds Get 3 Runs in 9th

The Reds scored three runs in the ninth as Frank Pawlick tripled after an error, a walk, a wild pitch and a hit batsman had filled the sacks. The blow sent Wally Turpin to the showers as Johnny Conant took over.

In the wild and wooly contest at Pocatello, Boise moved into an early lead when Cliff Barker smacked a four-bagger in the first with two men on.

The Cards tied the count in the second without a hit, Boise added four more in the third, another four in the fourth and five in the ninth. The Cardinals loaded the bases in the seventh with only one out, but brought only one runner home. The Cardinals kept the scorekeepers busy again in the ninth with four runs on four hits and a walk.

Probable pitchers tonight are:

Idaho Falls at Ogden—Johnston (6-0), vs. Bisemker (0-0).

Boise at Pocatello—Bob Kerrigan (1-0) vs. Dale Hils (0-0).

Wind Hampers Best-Ball Event

The first round matches in the ninth annual Jaycee best-ball golf tournament will start next Sunday, as scheduled, despite the fact that few golfers were able to battle the wind on the Twin Falls municipal course for the qualifying round Sunday.

Entrants must qualify this week. Course Master Fred Stone announced. The wind prevented play Sunday.

The championship matches will be staged June 2.

Fakirs are religious mendicants, common to all creeds in India.

E. L. Patrick Wins Title in Shooting Here

Three shooting championships were decided at Snake River Gun club Sunday—the high over-all (100 targets at 16 yards and 100 handicap targets); the 16-yard, the junior 16-yard and handicap and the handicap.

E. L. Patrick won the trophy in the high over-all event when he broke 179 out of 200 targets, defeating L. V. Rothrock by one target.

Glen White, Filer, won the shoot-off of the three-way tie for 16-yard championship. He had been tied with E. C. Vawdrey and Jim Thompson. The Ashworth Motor company trophy went to White.

Fifteen-year-old Jack Patrick won the junior championship, taking first in the 16-yard and the handicap events.

H. L. Hogsett broke 86 targets from the 23-yard line to gain the handicap title.

Because of the scarcity of ammunition only two Sundays of shooting remain.

Staley, Vargas Hurl Victories

By WILLIAM WEATHERSBY
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the luck of an Irish miner, San Francisco's Seals emerged today from their worst setback of the season leading the pack by two and one-half games in the Pacific Coast baseball league.

A double-header split yesterday with the Los Angeles Angels wound up the first series in which San Francisco, at the top since the start of the season, has received a drubbing.

Los Angeles won the first game yesterday, 3 to 2 in 10 innings, and the Seals annexed the 9-7 nightcap giving the Angels a series victory of four games to three.

When Manager Frank (Lefty) O'Doul clutched his shamrock and put the Seals on the diamond yesterday, the Oakland Oaks had a chance to catch up in the pennant chase. But the Hollywood Stars pounded on the Oaks for a double win, 3 to 4 and 2 to 0.

At Sacramento a pair of ex-service men, Gerald Staley and Manuel Vargas, both up from the Pioneer league, hurled the Solons to a twin victory, 7 to 3, and 2 to 2, over the San Diego Padres.

The league's northern teams split a doubleheader, with Portland taking the opener, 4 to 0, and Seattle scoring a 3-2 victory with three runs in an extra eighth inning of the second game. Seattle's win was Joe Demorack's first eight games after hurling a no-hit game.

Once-potent Portland, 1945 pennant winner, remained in the cellar.

This week San Francisco plays at Sacramento, Seattle at Oakland, Portland at Los Angeles and Hollywood at San Diego. The series opens Tuesday, except at Los Angeles, where a twin-bill begins the proceedings Wednesday.

Assault's Win Proves Racing Biggest Gamble

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6 (AP)—They've been saying for a long time now that no dice game or roulette wheel ever was as big a gamble as racing horses, and if there's any lingering doubt about it, take a look at the Kentucky derby winner, Assault.

The derby king with the deformed foot—bred by a Texan in Texas and trained by a Texan, but piloted by a jockey from Flatbush—takes a train ride to Baltimore today, trying to make history repeat.

If he wins the Preakness at Pimlico Saturday, on top of the roses he won so easily in the 72nd and richest derby last week-end before the greatest crowd ever to see a horse race in America—more than 100,000—he'll be doing just what his daddy did a decade ago.

Heartbreak and Gamble

But behind the cry of this first Texas-born horse ever to take the derby is the story of all the heartbreak and the gamble that go into breeding and racing a thoroughbred.

Assault's sire, Bold Venture, won the derby and they said he was lucky, that Brevity was a lot more horse. Bold Venture won the Preakness, too, but just when it looked as if he might go on winning, he broke down and had to retire.

Robert J. Kleberg, owner of the cow puncher-turned-King ranch in Texas, paid M. L. Schwartz $40,000 for him as a stud horse, and folks said that was a lot of cabbage for a horse who just happened to get lucky.

When a year old, Assault hurt his right front foot. The doctors said he might as well be put out of his misery because he'd never recover. But the stable hands called in another vet, who took the chance, cut the hoof almost entirely away—and he recovered.

8 to 1 Shot

Last Saturday as an 8 to 1 shot, he set off a stick of dynamite at Churchill Downs, and waltzed home by eight lengths. The photographs show he wanted to run so much he pulled the shank of Brooklyn boy Warren Mehrtens—clear out of the saddle trying to hold him in along the backstretch.

They paid him $96,400 for the job, and now he has a bankroll of $144,450.

Class B Title Game Tuesday

The game for the South Central Idaho Athletic association's class B baseball championship will be played at Jaycee park in Twin Falls at 2 p. m. Tuesday—if arrangements can be made to obtain the park.

The contest will be between the Paul Panthers, the Min-Cida sub-district champions, who won from Castleford, winner in the south side sub-district, and the Hagerman Pirates. Hagerman, the King Hill sub-district titleholder, defeated Shoshone, the north side champion.

Coach Harold Brown of the Panthers said he would pitch Ted Hatch, who gained three victories last week, beating Arequia, Shoshone and Castleford.

Two other games are scheduled for Jaycee park this week. Monday Twin Falls Bruins will oppose Buhl and on Wednesday night they will tangle with Jerome.

ON THE SPORT FRONT

Things that you, and you, and you, too, wouldn't know in Ye Olde Sport Scrivener wasn't a nasty old snooper:

Principal John Flatt and Coach J. S. Halliday are down in the records as the coaches of the Twin Falls Bruins' Big Six championship golf team, but there's no law that WSES couldn't find 'to prevent Links Maestro Fred Stone from whispering a word or two into the ears of Jimmy Russell, et al.

Jerry Broadhead and his dad, Glenn, with their cane poles sat down beside the guys with the fancy rods at the Minidoka dam the other evening and showed them something about trout fishing as they pulled in a 3½ pounder and a 4½ pounder, respectively.

Ned Emery, Oakley, was among the trappers whose beaver skins hit the $80 top price at Seattle last month.

President Maury Doerr of the Cowboys says the reason his players "are going pitchers this season" is because they've got their sights on the majors instead of the club's pocketbook—something that has a $2,200 limit.

Had they counted team points in the recent track classic at BYU, Coach George Hays' Rupert team and Spahish Fork, Utah, would have tied for the championship with 21 points.

Oh, yes, Averill Green, Paul's classy miler, came in third in a mile run field of 36 in the Provo meet, hitting the tape in 4:59, while Billy Flatt from Supt. Ralph McCloy's school was fourth in the half mile.

AND THAT'S THAT FOR NOW, EXCEPT: The Bruins' Gens Caldwell and Boise's Caldwell scored more points in the Big Six meet than the whole school of Caldwell.

Grain

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—Active grain futures were strong today with deferred oats contracts hitting their ceilings on several occasions and May rye at times advancing the 5-cent limit permitted in one day. Offerings expanded in both oats and rye when no further advance was possible and prices backed down.

Most of the upturn was based upon covering by previous short sellers. Further substantial decreases in the visible supply of all grains and unconfirmed reports from Washington that revisions may be made in the government's corn buying program acted to discourage liquidation.

May rye closed at $2.85⅝, up the full 5-cent limit for the fourth consecutive session. Oats were unchanged to ⅛c higher, September ⅛c. Wheat, corn, barley and deferred rye contracts were unchanged at ceilings.

Runs for Senate

Douglas (Wrong Way) Corrigan, who electrified the world in July, 1938, when he made a forbidden flight—"by mistake"—from New York to Dublin, Eire, in a dilapidated and obsolete plane, has filed his name for the U. S. senate. He announced at his Los Angeles home that he would run on the prohibition ticket in this fall's elections.

Losses Small in Two Farm Fires

BUHL, May 6—Two farm fires near Buhl Sunday did little damage although the Buhl mutual truck was unable to answer the call to the Carl Harder farm, six miles west of Buhl, because it was fighting another fire at the Donald McKay ranch.

The Buhl telephone operator called neighbors of the Harders and they responded to put out the blaze in the straw on the floor of the hen house. Serious damage was averted when the fire was kept from spreading to the nearby gas tanks and tractors.

The truck was called out at 2 p. m. for the McKay fire six miles east and three and one-half miles north of Buhl to extinguish a fire in the straw sheds. McKay said that the fire originated apparently from sparks from weeds burning on a neighboring farm.

Buhl Rotary Learns Of Polish Conditions

BUHL, May 6—Sam Merrill, Buhl, spoke to the Buhl Rotary club on his recent trip to Poland, in connection with the "heifers for relief" project of the Friends church.

Merrill sailed on a liberty ship. Aside from the stock the ship carried about 600 tons of hay, which they estimated should last for feed for about six months. Merrill reported conditions very poor in Poland, with run-away inflation and the lower classes literally starving.

He plans to devote a year to the sailings of the stock ships and will leave Buhl shortly for another trip across. They landed their cargo at Danzig.

Man's Vacation Delays CAB on Airmail Action

Unofficial reason for the delay in the awarding of Empire Airlines the airmail certificate was explained Monday by Ted Fischer, Twin Falls agent. Fischer explained that the civil aeronautics board official handling the report in Washington had gone on a 30-day leave and had just returned to the CAB office.

Word on the acceptance or denial of the airmail certificate is expected within the next two weeks, Fischer said.

"It probably will be August or September before airmail will come into Twin Falls even if the certificate is approved soon," Fischer said.

Possibility of the establishment of two-way radio communications between airports on the Empire airlines was expressed Monday when Bert Zimmerly, president, announced that James L. Hemingway, Anchorage, Alaska, had been appointed superintendent of communications for the airline concern.

The transmitter and receiver probably will be erected at the airport and will be in the control tower of the new airport should the issue pass in the city bond election May 21, Fischer said.

Zimmerly also announced that D. G. Hendrickson, former navy transport pilot, had been appointed superintendent of operations for the airline and that he is preparing plans for regional air carrier service over routes to 33 cities in Idaho, Nevada, Washington and Oregon as proposed in an application pending before the CAB.

Truck Upset Hurts 3 Hailey Occupants

HAILEY, May 6 — Three Hailey men were injured near Salmon City when the pick-up truck they were driving overturned.

Andrew Sealander and Cecil Tinker received treatment in the Hailey Clinical hospital, Sealander for an injured leg and Tinker for an injured right arm and contusions of the chest. John Fortune escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

Hailey Couple Back From Hawaii Post

HAILEY, May 6 — Naval Lieut. and Mrs. Martin Iverson and children, Ronnie and Connie, returned to Hailey from the Hawaiian islands, where he was in charge of the officers club at Pearl Harbor.

While they were not in the area that was badly damaged by the recent tidal wave, they saw much of the havoc that was wrought close by.

Eden's Coach Leaving; War Vet Signed up

EDEN, May 6 — Coach Charles Hawley has resigned at Eden high school to give full time to his business interests and will be succeeded next fall by Terrel Bell, World war II marine sergeant.

Hawley operates a mercantile business and refrigeration plant.

Supt. A. E. Gish said that Bell has been given a contract as science teacher and coach. His wife was employed to teach in Eden grade school. Bell, while overseas, handled recreation and athletics for his company in addition to his regular marine corps work. He was recently discharged and will receive his bachelor of arts degree at Albion State Normal this summer.

Other resignations from the high school staff:

Mrs. Ruth S. Metcalf resigned as English teacher. She will accompany her husband to Nevada.

L. W. Beebout, music instructor, has resigned his part-time position here to accept fulltime work as music instructor at Meridian high school.

Mrs. Gem Howard, social studies and home economics teacher, was reemployed for next year. Gish, high school superintendent, also was reemployed for that post and for mathematics instructor.

He said the high school still needs English, music and commercial teachers and is seeking two teachers who can combine talents to handle the three subjects.

13 Injured by Car and Farm Accident List

The Twin Falls county accident record for the week-end ending Monday 13 injured in addition to Friday's fatality.

Six accidents, five of them on highways, and one on a farm brought this heavy toll. Monday only five persons remain in the Twin Falls county general hospital receiving treatment for injuries, as the remaining eight patients have been dismissed.

Hit From Rear

Merle Bates, 17, Twin Falls, was treated for cuts and bruises sustained at 1:30 a.m. Sunday when the car in which he was riding was struck from the rear by a machine driven by E. M. Brown, 24, Twin Falls. Roderick Franck, 17, was driver of the car in which Bates was riding, with George F. Smith, 19, Twin Falls, and John Woodland, 16, Twin Falls, as other passengers. Riding with Brown was Arlene Glantz, Twin Falls. The accident occurred near the Rock creek canyon bridge northwest of Twin Falls.

Bates has been dismissed from the hospital.

Also dismissed was Sharon Rose, Shelley, who was treated for a fractured left wrist. She and her brother, Clayton Rose, were injured late Saturday afternoon in a motorcycle accident. The brother is still at the hospital here with a leg laceration.

Tractor Accident

Still in the hospital is Robert Holloway, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Holloway, route 3, Twin Falls, who was injured Sunday afternoon when he fell from a tractor when the running board upon which he was standing broke. He fell under the machine, operated by Howard Miller, 15, and sustained two fractured ribs and a broken arm. His condition today was reported as "fairly good."

Three of eight young people injured in a head-on collision south of Hansen early Saturday morning are still in the hospital. They are: Barbara Thacker, 16, Kimberly, broken leg; Joan Hall, 15, Twin Falls, fractured arm; and Leroy Orchard, 19, Twin Falls, spinal injury.

Utahn Bruised

Guy McMillan, Tremonton, Utah, received bruises and rib injuries when a car in which he was riding was involved in a swideswipe accident east of Hansen late Saturday night. Other occupants of the machines escaped injury.

The only person fatally injured in the accidents was Cyrus H. Taylor, 31, Buhl, who died from a broken neck sustained when his machine left the road Friday.

Minor mishaps reported to officials here included one involving a sedan driven by Ralph Wygal, which hit the rear of a car driven by J. R. Frederickson, Stanfield, Ore., who had stopped his machine to repair a tire. This occurred at 8 p. m. Sunday.

7 Billions Slated For Army's Use

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—President Truman today submitted to congress a program calling for expenditures by the war department in the next fiscal year totalling $7,246,335,200.

The President said the estimates contemplate maintenance of an army of 1,070,000 men and officers on June 30, 1947. This would compare with 1,500,000 on June 30, 1946.

In addition to maintaining this strength the estimates provide $500,000,000 for government and relief in occupied areas and $200,000,000 for the atomic service formerly carried on by the manhattan project.

Interment was in the Payette cemetery Thursday.

JEROME, May 6 — A Twin Falls couple paid fines totaling $150 and court costs when they appeared before Probate Judge William Comstock at Jerome on intoxication charges.

Bennie McBride and Katherine McBride were arrested by Marshall Christopherson at Hazelton. A charge of intoxication was filed against McBride and a drunken driving charge filed against Mrs. McBride.

In addition to the $100 fine levied against Mrs. McBride and the $50 fine for McBride, each was sentenced to 30 days in jail, but the jail sentence was suspended upon payment of the fines. Each was assessed $5.40 court costs.

Salvation Army Divisional Heads Conferring Here

Salvation Army leaders from throughout southern Idaho and Oregon opened their divisional officers' conference Monday afternoon at the Park hotel in Twin Falls, following a luncheon meeting.

Brig. H. E. Collier, who, with Mrs. Collier, is the division commander, was principal speaker at a public meeting Sunday night at Salvation Army headquarters. In his address, he emphasized the importance of Christ in every phase of human life. Brig. Collier will also be the principal speaker during the afternoon sessions.

Luncheon speaker was Maj. Clara Flack of the White Shield Homes, who, as superintendent, outlined the intake policy of those institutions. Also speaking was Maj. Alma Marvol, Booth Memorial home and hospital, Boise.

Discussion during the afternoon was centered upon youth activities and other phases of the Salvation Army program, according to Maj. Clara E. Nielsen of the local unit.

Equipment at Bridge Helps Speed Repair

The improvement program at the Twin Falls-Jerome inter-county bridge was moving ahead at a quickened pace today, following arrival of new equipment, including a rubber-tired crane, Contractor Dan J. Cavanagh announced.

Arrival of the crane will expedite the $130,000 project, as it was not possible to use the regular steel-treaded type on the armored steel decking being set in place from the north end. The other crane is being used to remove the old decking of timbers and asphalt ahead of the new construction, which also includes installation of steel sidewalks and a walkway.

Cavanagh said that new construction is now about one-third of the way across and that arrival of additional iron workers from Salt Lake City is speeding the job.

Commenting upon the weight of the new steel, as compared to the previous dead load on the bridge, Cavanagh said that the steel offsets the previous weight, as the bridge was carrying 900 tons of timbers and asphalt surfacing. Weight of the steel and a special lightweight cement is not materially greater, he pointed out.
